

Pukekohe Sale Livestock Report

Saturday 9th December 2017

Saturday at Pukekohe saw a good quality line-up of cattle sell very well, considering yet another schedule drop over the weekend and killing space being at a premium. Prices were, in fact, up in places on the previous week, this due mainly to the more manageable cattle numbers that came forward. That, coupled with the fact that there were hardly any badly bred cattle compared to the previous week, makes selling much more pleasurable, plus average prices were much higher.
